FOREWORD

For the past nine months the 1961 KALEIDOSCOPE has been steadily approaching life through the efforts of the staff and many friends who have readily come to its aid in time of need. There have been moments of agony and much anguish; there have been times when it looked as if it would not make it; and there have been times when all went well, although not very frequently. However, throughout its development the chief goal has been to create that which would be pleasing to you, the students of Hampden-Sydney, both now and in the years to come. Now that it has received life, we sincerely hope that you will find it to your liking.

As the time comes for our class of 1961 to leave Hampden-Sydney, we are filled with mixed emotions—joy to be finished with another phase of our life, eagerness to start the new stage, and nostalgic remembrances of our happy days on campus. We felt much the same way that day four years ago when we first became Hampden-Sydney gentlemen.

It was an exciting day and a confusing one. Registration, introduction to faculty and administration, the initiation to so many new friends, and the abandonment within those four bare walls that were to be our home for the next nine months; occupied most of that first hectic day. It was a fitting prelude to the busy days of meetings and tests that followed.

Next came the indoctrination period conducted by the Sophomores. Rat hats, signs, "sound-off" and "Keep off the grass" became familiar words to us. Rat races and the resulting visits to Dr. Moore soon cut down the number of rats indulging in the sport to twenty-eight. We will always remember the humility of those baby bottles.

As the months passed and exams approached, many experienced for the first time a disastrous lack of knowledge. We will always remember Dr. Johnson who helped so many of us through Chemistry 101. Will any of us ever forget Bill, the Magician who put on a four hour show in "Stagger In."

Glee Club, Fraternities, Editorials, Football, Basketball, Literary Groups—all these organizations helped make us feel that we were becoming more and more a part of Hampden-Sydney.

After a restful summer we again returned to the Hill and were immediately aware of the absence of many of our fellow classmates. Work soon overtook us, and we gained the important job of controlling the new arrivals on campus, the class of 1962. They were a spirited class, initiating the blockade system, but under the leadership of the sophomore president, Buddy Babb, such obstacles were overcome by breaking through the ceiling.

During our reign as sophomores those with guilty consciences reacted frightfully to the appearance of Charlie "the Devil" Sears, and many night lights were left burning after his visits. Also one morning there was evidence that a Giant had visited fraternity row, and that someone had painted the Dean's windows red.

We now managed to find more time to travel the well-beaten path to Longwood and the local Farmville hangouts. With the coming of Spring books were neglected for frequent trips to the quarry for a cool dip and the picnics on Lee's mountain. Near the close of our sophomore year came the difficult decision of each choosing his major, our class being the first directly affected by this system. This was a turning point in our lives, many changing from pre-med and law. The migration to a B.A. curriculum was extensive!

By our Junior Year our group had thinned out considerably and we were now between the "supreme" and the "gross". Cushing Hall continued to be the setting for snowball battles, with the resulting damage, and bombardment by water bags. The sudden appearance of a statue in Morton Hall remained a mystery to most, but his presence was very evident until our return from Spring vacation. A Renault made a brief appearance in Morton on another occasion. Will we ever be able to forget the lovely weather we had for Homecomings and Mid-Winters: Homecoming festivities were dampened by a surplus of rain and Mid-Winters occurred during our month of snow, leaving many cars stuck in ditches and other places.

With the Spring elections our leaders for the coming year were chosen—Dan McKeel president, Bob Moore vice-president, Bob Stump secretary, and Billy Williams historian. Lewis Bridgeforth was elected President of the Student Body and Bob Ewald was elected President of Student Christian Association, by majority vote. Also in the Spring we learned, after the circulation of many rumors, that Dr. Robert would be leaving us for a European Fellowship. No immediate president was named for the coming year, and soon we left school for the summer vacation.

Now came the time for many of us to be counting hours and quality points in hope of graduating. Time rolled on and every activity was becoming more meaningful. Homecomings was exciting as usual and the seniors were more conscious of the festivities. Many seniors took advantage of the frequent interviews offered with high hopes of finding a promising job for the future. Others were planning their stay in the armed services.

With the nearing of June came the realization that all work would soon come to an end and we would leave our position as students to assume our responsible places as alumni. We hope that with all that has been given us by the school, we can at least leave some impression and lasting influence behind us as we go out to face the world as responsible citizens, having been enriched by the Hampden-Sydney tradition.

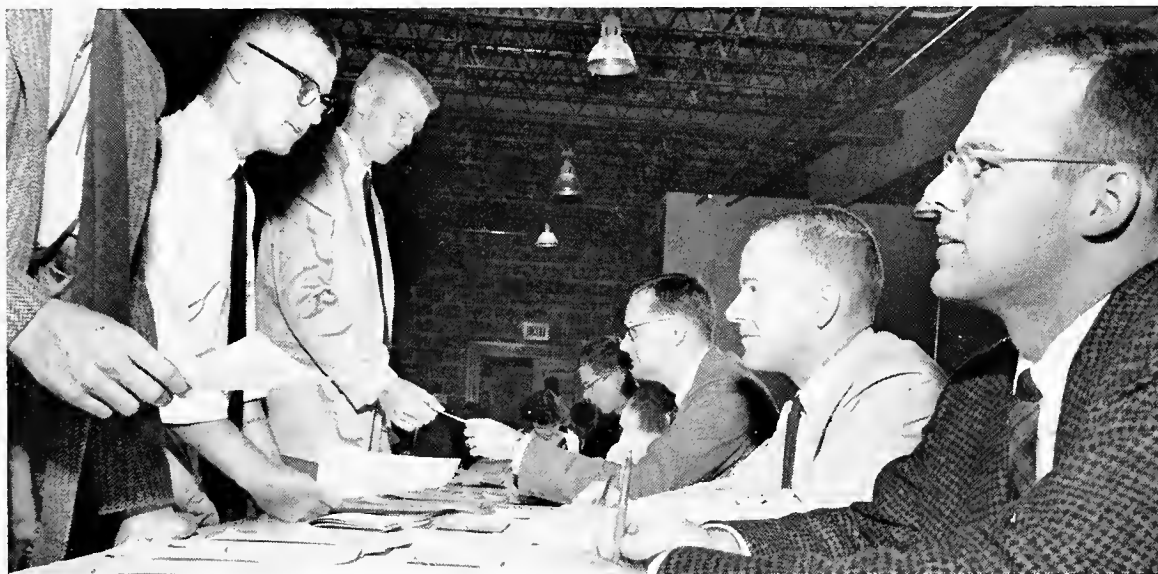

Now is the time for us to look back at the past four years and see everything in its proper perspective. We entered at a period when Hampden-Sydney was changing and many old traditions were making room for new ideas. The introduction of College Boards as an entrance requirement, initiated with us, is a continued pre-requisite. The major system as introduced by the faculty was put into its own right. We saw the termination of Dr. Robert's presidency and the coming of Dr. Gilmer, a Hampden-Sydney man himself, as his successor. Many new faculty members have been introduced on the Hill, and we have regretfully seen many established men leave for new positions or for the chance to further develop their education. At the close we are confronted with the news that another change is coming in, that of the Semester System as opposed to the Session System.

The most important and lasting impression of our stay as students cannot be expressed in words, but is found existing in all Hampden-Sydney gentlemen, only being understood by fellow graduates or students of Hampden-Sydney.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
HAMPDEN-SYDNEY, VIRGINIA

May 1961

To the Members of the Graduating Class:

It may seem strange, as you read these lines a few days before commencement, that I should take the opportunity to talk to you about what one has called "the desire to learn." True, in graduating from college you have reached a milestone in your life and have attained a goal for which you have striven for years. You have my most sincere congratulations, but never think of this accomplishment as an end in itself.

Speaking as one of your teachers, and I believe I speak for all, my hope is that we have instilled into each of you this desire to learn. If this remains a dominant force in your life long after you have forgotten "Newton's Second Law," then Hampden-Sydney College has succeeded in one of her main objectives.

As you leave the "Hill" as students and join the ranks of the alumni, you are not a "finished product." May you never so consider yourself. When a man reaches that state of mind, then he is indeed finished. Remember the words of the psalmist, "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

You leave these familiar surroundings with our blessing. We bid you farewell as students, but welcome you most heartily as alumni.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Gilmer

The 1961 Tigers

CHARLES HAYWARD SEARS

Captain

When one looks at a team's won-lost record they either get a favorable or unfavorable impression of the team. The won-lost record, however, does not always tell the true story of the squad. This record of the 1960 football Tigers does not come close to giving the real picture of this season's gridmen. The Garnet and Gray this year did not have a very favorable won-lost record, but their total seasonal figures show that they out-played their opponents in every aspect except the score column.

This year's captain, veteran halfback Charlie Sears, turned in a commendable performance in leading his squad. Charlie, although injured early in the season, came back by the Western Maryland game to continue on the field the inspiring job he had done from the sidelines.

RICHARD BURRELL
Athletic Director

Director and Coaches

This year there was a complete turn-over in the Tiger athletic department. Heading the new staff was athletic director Richard Burrell. This was his first year at this position, having come to Hampden-Sydney from Woodberry Forest School in Orange, Virginia. He served also as assistant football coach and brought with him an outstanding record as a high school football mentor. Preceding his five very successful years at "Orange High", he had piled up a very commendable record at Highland Springs High School where his teams won 50 of 75 games. He is an alumnus of Hampden-Sydney ('38) and while a student here he starred in football, basketball, and baseball.

Stepping into the place of head football coach this year was a man familiar to everyone on the "Hill". Stokeley Fulton, having been line coach of the Tiger squad since 1957, moved up to take over from Bob Thalman, who went on to UNC.

Stokeley's first year at guiding his team from the number one coach's spot was not too happy a one for him record-wise, but what his team lacked in experience, they made up for in desire and spirit and the fine sportsmanship which is so characteristic of all H-S teams. Stokeley himself is an all-time Tiger great, having been picked on the first team Little All-America squad his senior year ('55), and having captained the school's baseball team that year also.

When the Tigers included wrestling in their athletic roster last year, Stokeley became head coach of that sport. He has done a fine job with his mat-men during the first two seasons.

The third member of the new athletic department staff is Bill Pegram, Jr. Coming to Hampden-Sydney from Hopewell High School where he too had a very fine coaching record, he was named head coach of the Tiger "cagers" and served as an assistant football coach.

Completing the new four member staff is Billy Franklin. Bill served as Jayvee basketball coach and assistant in football. He also took over the position vacated by Mont Linkenauer as trainer and pilot of the Bengal track team.

These men have done a grand job the first year in their positions, and we know that through their continued effort Hampden-Sydney will continue to produce championship teams.

Pegram, Fulton, Burrell, Franklin

Tony Rucker, End; Tim Butler, Tackle; Oris Bradley, Guard; Bill Sale, Center.

E. & H. Edges Tigers In Opener, 14-6

September 24—The Tigers began the 1960 football season by dropping a hard fought battle to a heavily favored Emory and Henry team, 14-6. The H-S eleven took an early 6-0 lead, but were unable to hold the edge and E&H led at the half, 7-6. The Wasps scored again in the third quarter and, despite the determined effort of the Big Red, held on to the lead to take the decision. Hampden-Sydney, hurt by penalties and some costly fumbles, was unable to score again after their original tally. Credit must be given to the Tiger second unit, led by sophomore quarterback Stuart Shelton. Defensive honors went to end Bob Saylor and halfback Tris Hyde.

Bengals Over Bridgewater, 48-0

October 1—Making a comeback from their one-touchdown defeat of the previous week, the Garnet and Gray soundly trounced an upset-minded Bridgewater eleven. Thanks to the heads-up play of guard Dave Holman who recovered a fumble on the Eagle 34, the Tigers in six plays were able to score and took the lead, 7-0. There was no more scoring in the first half due to the determined defensive play of both teams. When the second half opened there was no doubt as to which the winning team would be. The Bengals stopped the Bridgewater offense and then turned on the steam, scoring six more TD's before the final gun. Laurels went to Fred Mitchell who kicked 6 of 7 extra points.

Dave Holman, Guard; Bill Heinzer, Guard; Bobby Jean Saylor, End; Lewis Everette, Quarterback.

Tigers Downed By Sewanee Before Dad's Day Crowd, 14-6

October 8—The Tigers lost their second one-touch-down decision of the season to a determined Sewanee team. Although H-S came out on the short end of the score, they out-played the Purple of Sewanee in every other respect.

	H-S	Sewanee
First Downs	15	4
Rushing Yardage	191	125
Passing Yardage	62	26
Punts	4-40.2	8-32.2
Yards Penalized	0	45

Honors again went to end Bob Saylor for his outstanding job on both offense and defense.

During the half-time ceremonies Mr. Arthur W. Harrison, president of the Parents and Friends Ass'n., crowned Miss Suzanne Drake queen of Dad's Day.

Bengals Blast Western Maryland, 32-12

October 15—The H-S eleven evened their season record at 2-2 by upsetting Western Maryland in the opponents' annual Parents' Day game. Although the Green Terrors broke the ice and scored first in the opening period, the Tigers bounced back and took an 18-6 lead by half-time. The Red'n'Gray scored again in the third quarter, and allowed Western Maryland only one more touchdown before they finally capped off the decision in the final period with a Ferrell to Saylor pass. Co-captain Charlie Sears overcame his early season injuries and led the individual rushing with 66 yards. Stuart Shelton deserves praise for his job at quarterback. Stuart completed 5 passes for a total of 131 yards.

Tom Tredway, Fullback; Freddie Mitchell, Halfback; Denny Dills, Halfback; Tris Hyde, Halfback.

Washington and Lee Beats Hampden-Sydney In Homecoming Tilt, 14-7

October 29—The one-touchdown curse again struck the Tigers as a Homecoming crowd watched undefeated W&L come from behind to win a grueling game. H-S scored first on a sneak by quarterback Stuart Shelton, and the half ended with the Bengals on top 7-0. W&L scored early in the second half, but were unable to convert and the Tigers held on to a one-point lead. After stopping one offensive threat the Tigers yielded the game-winning TD and the contest ended with the Generals ahead 14-7. Tom Tredway and Bill Sale played an excellent game, with Sale going the full 60 minutes.

H-S Falls Short As Franklin and Marshall Win, 21-20

November 5—The Tiger gridmen traveled to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, for their sixth game of the 1960 season. Hampden-Sydney, playing for a win rather than a tie, tried for a two point conversion in the closing minutes of the game, but was unable to break through the F&W line. Although the team lost the game by one point, they should be congratulated for their spirit and desire to win as was evidenced by the try for two points. This spirit showed itself throughout the year and the team should be justly proud of themselves even though they did not have a winning season.

George McVey, Center; Art Matney, Tackle; Scotty Simms, End; Neil Yeargin, End.

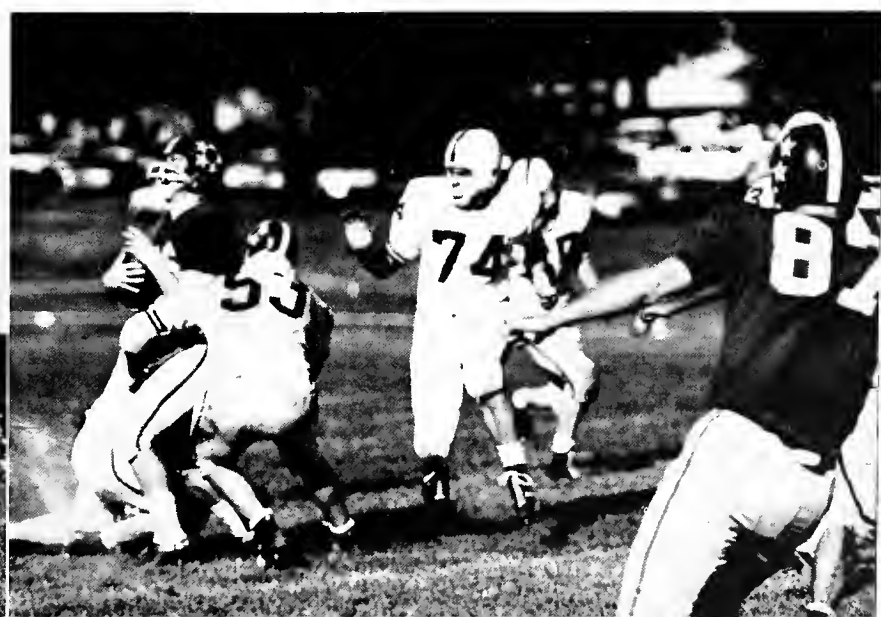

Garnet and Gray Shut Out By Centre, 10-0

November 12—The 'Tigers' only scoreless game of the 1960 season came at the hands of the Colonels of Centre College. Although the H-S squad came within a few yards of pay dirt a number of times, they were unable to capitalize on their drives. A determined Centre defense combined with bull's-eye accurate passing proceeded to halt the Bengals time after time. The Colonels could not score in the first two quarters, but came back in the final half with a TD and a field goal. A number of Tiger players performed outstandingly, in particular, backs Everette, Sears, Treadway, and Mitchell, tackle Tim Butler, and linebacker Otis Bradley.

Tigers End Season With Loss To Randolph-Macon, 10-7

November 19—City Stadium in Richmond was the scene of the closing game for the Tiger squad. The Tigers scored the first touchdown of the game and their last of the 1960 season on an electrifying Everette pass early in the game. Freddie Mitchell added the extra point and H-S scoring had ended for the year. The Yellow-Jackets squeezed out their 10 points in this toss-up game on a touchdown and a field goal, and the Red & Gray was unable to mount a strong enough drive to pull out the defeat.

The Bengals played good ball considering the fact that they were seriously handicapped by a number of injuries among the usual starting team. Standout players of the game were Everette, Mitchell, Sears, Treadway, McVey, Sims, Holman, Sale, Yeargin, Heinzer, and Butler.

Stewart Shelton, Quarterback; Wortie Ferrell, Fullback; Rodney Matthews, Tackle; Bobby Lloyd, End.

Football Honors

The 1960 Tigers placed five men on the mythical All Mason-Dixon Conference squad. First team honors went to junior line-backer Bill Sale. Bill also received a position on the first string All Small College Virginia team. Junior Sale has been elected as one of the tri-captains for the 1961 Red'n'Gray squad, and received the best defensive player award at the team's annual banquet.

Chosen with Bill to a first team berth on the All Mason-Dixon team was senior guard Dave Holman. Dave is the typical example of the H-S gridman, characterized by that desire matched by natural ability which has abetted the team during his years of playing at Death Valley.

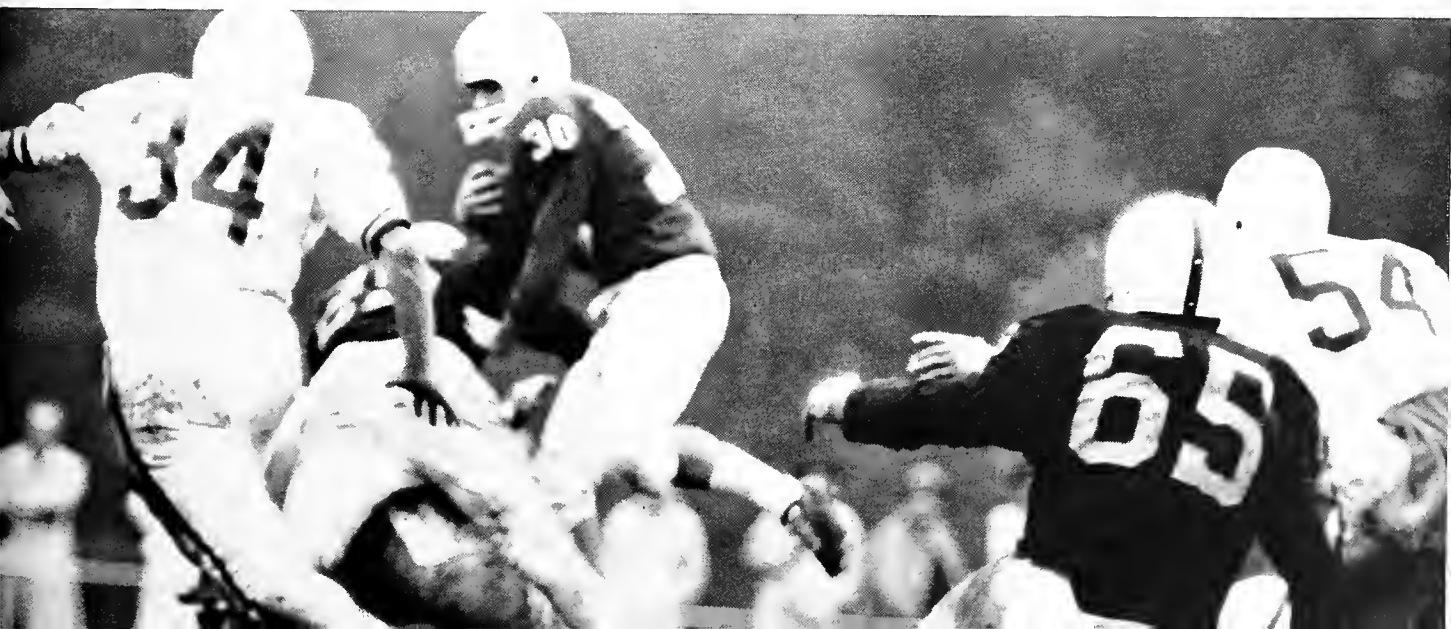

Three other members of the Bengal squad obtained second team positions on the M-D team. Captain Charlie Sears, who led his fellows in total rushing yardage; another halfback, Fred Mitchell, who was second in individual scoring and voted most improved player; and tackle Tim Butler, another of the tri-captains of next year's gridmen.

Four players were picked to be on the All Small College Virginia honorary team. Besides Sale, Charlie Sears received this second honor by being placed on the first team. Quarterback Lewis Everette, a three letter man last year, and end Bobby Gene Saylor complete the quartet. Saylor was chosen by his Tiger teammates and coaches as the most valuable player on the 1960 Bengal squad.

Twenty men received letters in football this year. They were seniors Charlie Sears, George McVey, Dave Holman, and Scotty Sims; juniors Bobby Saylor, Tony Rucker, Neal Yeargin, Tim Butler, Bill Sale, Bill Heinzer, and Tom Treadway; sophomores Art Matney, Bill Hanes, Otis Bradley, Stuart Shelton, Wortie Ferrell, Freddie Mitchell, and Tris Hyde; and freshmen George Perkins and Kenny Pritchett.

The Tiger basketball squad, comprised almost entirely of freshmen and sophomores, came out on the short end of the won-lost record in the 1961 season. The overall record was 8 wins against 17 losses.

Sophomore Bill Hardin headed the Bengal scoring with a total of 487 points for a game average of 20.3. Coach Bill Pegram's cagers had a total of 1935 points for the season and a 77.4 game average. The team was also behind in their Mason-Dixon Conference record (4-7), but broke even in the Little Eight (8-8).

The Pegrammen lost the opener to William and Mary at Williamsburg, but in the forty minutes of play the Tigers had the respect of the Indians' home crowd.

The Bengals were downed in a heartbreaker at the hands of Norfolk Division of William and Mary by one point, 83-82. A last second shot attempt of the Tigers rolled around the rim but fell off just as the final buzzer sounded.

In their first game as host, the Red 'n' Gray five lost their third game of the season. Bill Hardin again led his teammates in scoring for the third consecutive time and brought his season total up to 74.

In the fourth game the H-S squad finally broke into the winning column while again playing host, this time to Roanoke College. Bill Hardin and Dave Wilson combined 17 points apiece to pace the Tigers to a 73-70 victory. The squad out-rebounded RC 45-29.

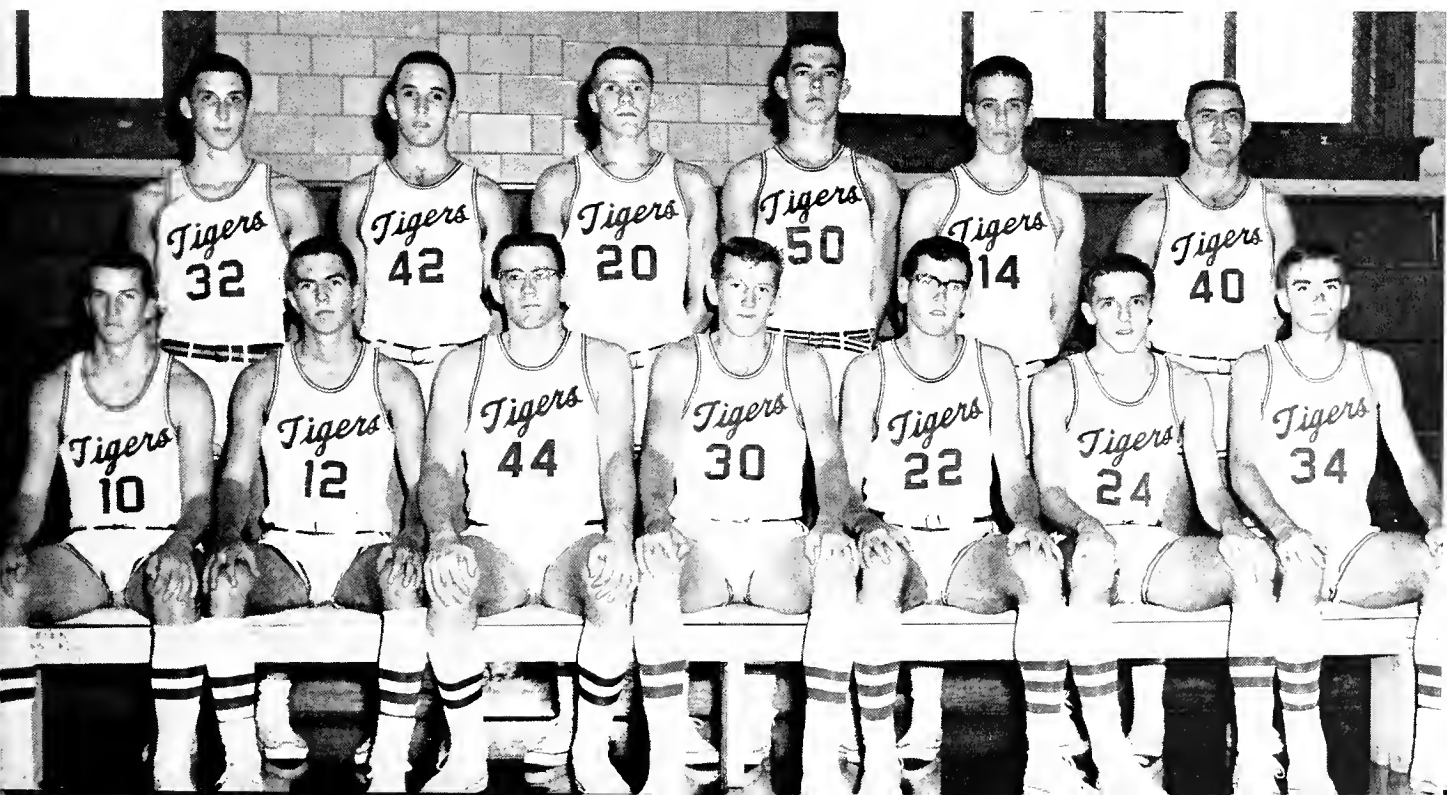

The Tiger five participated in two pre-Christmas tournaments, the Bridgewater Invitational and the Fort Lee Invitational. The team came out of the actions winning only one game, defeating Bridgewater 96-79, while dropping five to Lynchburg, Randolph-Macon, Catawba, R.P.I., and another one-pointer, this time to Roanoke.

Mount St. Mary's next invaded "The Hill" to stop the Red 'n' Grey 95-83. Forward Phil Lotz led the losers with 19 points.

The Tigers broke the century mark in the following game with R.P.I. The squad roared over the Richmond team 108-94. Behind the pace setting play and 36 points of Bill Hardin, four other Tiger players hit for double figures. The Bengals took the lead after the first few minutes of play and never trailed from that point on. This was the most impressive Tiger win of the season and the high spirits generated by the victory were echoed four nights later when the squad upset Randolph-Macon 78-72.

Standing: King, Carter, Long, Terry, Lotz, Duncan

Four Bengals hit four double figures in the win over the conference leading Yellow Jackets. Three of these men—Hardin, Wilson, and Davis—totaled in the twenties.

In return engagements with Norfolk Division and Roanoke College the Tigers were downed twice, 90-78 and 102-90 respectively.

The Generals of Washington and Lee journeyed to H-S and were stopped by the Bengal squad 76-61 in a game that started the Tigers on their longest win spurt of the year.

The team followed the victory over W&L by topping Lynchburg College: 92-81, Bridgewater: 89-71, and Emory and Henry: 98-91. In the four-game winning spree the Tigers' top three scorers were Hardin (96 pts.), Davis (74 pts.), and Cox (65 pts.).

In the third tilt of the season between the Death Valley five and Randolph-Macon, the Yellow Jackets came away victorious by an 80 to 58 margin. Baltimore University squeezed by the Tigers in another heartbreaker for the H-S squad, 93-92.

The Tigers dropped their last two games of the 1961 season. Johns-Hopkins took credit for Hampden-Sydney's fifteenth loss by ekeing out a two-point victory over the Tigers on the winners' home court, 77-75. R.P.I. got revenge for the drubbing they had suffered at the hands of the Bengals earlier in the season by taking a 71-64 decision.

The Tigers ended the year with the Mason-Dixon Tournament in which they lost to Mason-Dixon champion Randolph-Macon, 94-69.

About the only bright spot of the season for the Tigers was the selection of Bill Hardin to the first team of the mythical All Small College Virginia squad. Bill, who was the fifth highest scorer in the state, also received the R. A. Moore Award for the most valuable player on the Bengal basketball team. Honors also went to captain Norwood Davis who received an honorable mention to the All Small College Virginia team.

Wrestling

The completion of the 1960-61 season marked the end of the second year for the Tiger wrestling team. Stokeley Fulton, as head coach, directed his team to a sixth place position in the Mason-Dixon Conference.

In the Mason-Dixon tournament, held at Johns Hopkins, three Bengals came away with honors.

Captain Otis Bradley won the 191 lb. division championship and was voted the outstanding wrestler of the tournament. Art Matney, who along with Bradley went undefeated during regular season competition, was winner of the 177 lb. division, and Tim Butler took fourth place in the unlimited weight class.

Cross Country

In one of its leanest seasons in recent years, coach Billy Franklin's cross country team posted no wins in six meets. The schools which topped Hampden-

Sydney were Lynchburg College, Washington and Lee, Randolph-Macon, Roanoke College, and Bridgewater.

Miller, Caperton, Zerbe, Woody

Golf

Having taken the Mason-Dixon Golf Championship in 1959, the Tiger linkers added the Little Eight golf crown to their awards in 1960. This was only the team's third season of competition and under the able captaincy of Ike Eisinger and the coaching of Russ McDonald they chalked up a 7-1 record in the 1960 season.

Wins were posted over VMI, Norfolk Division of William and Mary, Roanoke College, W&L, Randolph-Macon, Lynchburg College, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Tennis

The Tiger netters of 1960 season were in the black. Their overall record was ten wins to four defeats. It was the away matches that accounted for the Bengal losses.

Under the leadership of Bill Waters, in his second year as captain, the team showed excellent form and has a number of promising new men.

After being confined to the gym for a good part of Spring training, the Tiger baseball team, under the watchful eye of coach Milam, moved out into the sunlight and the victory-light to win their first six games of the 1960 season. Triumphs were over Davidson, 11-4; Elon, 5-4; Belmont Abby, 9-0; North Carolina State, 10-4; Washington College, 1-0; and Harvard, 9-4.

Losing only one game in the next five starts, the Bengal batmen had chalked up a 10-1 record by mid-season. The Tiger sticks did not stop booming as arch-rival Randolph-Macon was the next victim on the schedule. The H-S nine banged out 16 hits to take the game 17-5.

The most outstanding win of the season was against RPI, when the Tigers unleashed an awesome display of batting power and scored 19 runs to the loser's none.

The pitching of Lew Drew, Moley Stuart, Butch Cox, and John McDaniel combined with the slugging of Wayne McLean, Gerald Duncan, Vernell Martin, Larry Hammer, and Tommy Davis to give the Tigers the power they displayed all season long.

The very able captain of the 1960 Bengal nine was versatile Leon Hawker. Top-notch hitter, perfect control pitcher, and flawless fielder, Leon was signed at the end of his college career by the Los Angeles Dodgers of the National League. Coach Milam summed up Leon perfectly when he said, "He is the best little man I ever coached."

Coach Milam, in his last year at Death Valley, did an outstanding job with his players. The Tigers ended a successful baseball season, winning four of their last six games. The team did not retain the Mason-Dixon crown this year, but they did finish the season with an impressive 15-6 record. This was the first year since 1956 that the squad did not hold the conference title.

The Tigers lost Coleman, Drew, Hawker, Martin, McLean, and Buck Dodson when they graduated, but they have a fine nucleus for a winning team in the 1961 season.

Track

The Tigers got off to a slow start in the 1960 track season, suffering two defeats before they were able to win over Randolph-Macon. In the first meet of the year, ever-strong Roanoke College downed the Bengals 92½ to 29½. Bill Benson, Walt Chapman, Carter Zerbe, and Bill Caperton all turned in commendable performances. Benson was high pointer for the Tigers with 11 points.

In their second outing the Red'n'Gray thinclads again were defeated, this time by a powerful William and Mary cinder squad. Experience and depth were once more the deciding factors in the Tigers' second loss.

Things began happening by the third contest, this time held at Death Valley. Bill Caperton took the 440 yard dash in the record making time of :51.4. Gil Sayers and Walt Chapman tied for individual scoring honors with 11 points apiece. The Tigers took first place in twelve of fourteen events.

The Bengals' third defeat of the season came at the hands of Washington and Lee, but Bill Caperton did it again. Having set a new school mark in the 440, he beat his own time and established the record at :51.3.

The H-S squad tied Lynchburg College in the fourth outing 61-61, with Walt Chapman the high scorer of the meet, bringing in $17\frac{1}{4}$ points for the Tigers.

Bill Caperton could not be held down in the 1960 season. Having set one 440 mark and then having broken his own record, Bill decided it was time to move into another event. The old school record in the 880 yard run was 2:00.2, after the first annual Virginia State Intercollegiate Track and Field Championship, Caperton had added another medal to his growing collection by running it in 1:59.5.

The cinder men ended the season by finishing third in both the Mason-Dixon and Little Eight conferences. Three more Hampden-Sydney records were set in the team's final meet. The 880 mark was lowered once more by Bill Caperton to 1:59.3. John Graves knocked six-tenths of a second off the 440 time to establish the record at :50.7. The mile relay team placed third, but brought home a new school record of 3:25.7.

Intramurals

In tight hard-fought competition, the seven social fraternities and the Independent organization participate in seven sports for the championship trophy. The trophy is awarded on the basis of total accumulated points for the seven sports in the program.

The sports are: touch football, basketball (A group and B group), volleyball, ping pong, horse-shoes, tennis and softball.

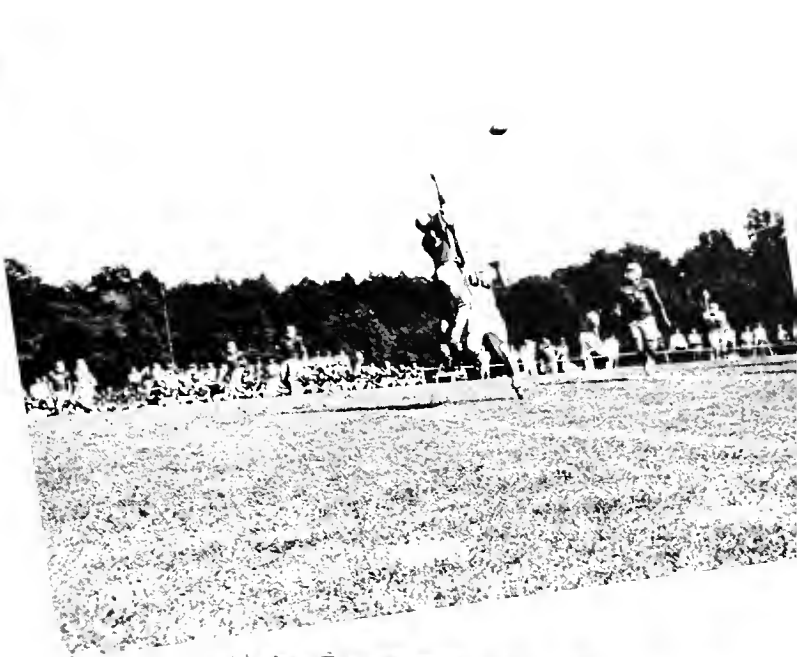

The intramural program is under the supervision of the students with Tom Jenks acting as manager.
